

ATTENTION

ALL Kindergarten-3rd Grade Teachers
& Instructional Coaches!!!

An amazing opportunity to take a closer look at Phonics, Spelling, and Word Study is Virtually coming to KCK!

Plan to join Fountas and Pinnell Classroom Consultant Jessica Sherman.

Who:

All K-3rd Grade teachers and ICs

When and What:

Wednesday, November 6th during Early Release

- Benefits of a coherent approach to word solving
- Benefits of predictable routines
- Routines and instructional Procedures
- Projecting lessons

Wednesday, November 20th during Early Release

- Review how nine/six areas of learning support word solving in reading and writing
- Explore connection between lesson goals, The Continuum, and the grade level standards
- Use the pacing guide to determine focus standards
- Inquiry as a stance
- PWS as a teaching mindset – making connections all day long
- Role of teacher in pulling the PWS through contexts
- Tips and tricks for building coherence around PWS all day

Where:

In one room at your building! You will be attending the meeting via Zoom.

Bring:

Fountas and Pinnell PWS Teachers Manual

How:

On both dates, (Nov. 6th and 20th) both groups of teachers (K-1 and 2-3) will meet in one location in the building.

- K-1 Teachers meet in one location from 2:15-3:00, one person from group logs into the Zoom meeting, the group learns, and listens together.
- 2nd-3rd Teachers meet in one location from 3:15-4:00, one person from group logs into the Zoom meeting, the group learns and listens together.
