

EMPORIA STATE UNIVERSITY

Emporia State University strives to offer the best value in academic excellence for educators. With an exceptional 155 year reputation as Kansas' first teacher preparation institution, our education programs are lauded by Edutopia.org as "simultaneously one of the oldest and one of the most modern in the country."

In attunement with our modern approach, we are excited to announce five new online Master of Science degree programs:

- MS in Educational Administration
- MS in Curriculum & Instruction – Curriculum Leadership PreK-12
- MS in Curriculum & Instruction – Effective Practitioner PreK-12
- MS in Curriculum & Instruction – Instructional Coach/Teacher Leader PreK-12
- MS in Curriculum & Instruction – National Board Certification PreK-12

Coursework for each program is delivered 100% online and offers multiple start dates, accelerated 7-week courses and affordable tuition. All five of our graduate education programs are NCATE-accredited, 33 credit hours, and can be completed in as few as 12 months. Plus, no GRE is required to apply.

Our MS Educational Administration online program guides aspiring administrators in the exploration of contemporary theory, methods and practice to develop and maintain a healthy organizational culture that promotes creativity and performance.

The MS C&I – Curriculum Leadership PreK-12 online program is designed for educators who aspire to coordinate the design, implementation, management and evaluation of curriculum and instruction in public or private school systems.

In the MS C&I – Effective Practitioner PreK-12 online program, educators expand their professional knowledge base to help them teach better as well as become a resource for faculty development projects and activities in public or private school settings.

Our MS C&I – Instructional Coach/Teacher Leader PreK-12 online program emphasizes applying evidence-based practices into classroom curriculum by working with teachers and other school leaders to improve instruction.

The MS C&I – National Board Certification PreK-12 online program provides guidance on developing a portfolio and organizing supportive professional documentation, as designed and required by the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards® (NBPTS).

Our representative, Gregg Errebo, will contact you soon to discuss the partnership and program benefits for your education staff in greater detail.

We look forward to working with you to prepare educators for new growth in their careers.
