ECONOMICS AND PERSONAL FINANCE RESOURCES AND PROGRAMS FROM THE FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF KANSAS CITY

TEACHER PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP SERIES JUNE – JULY 2019

Join us at the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City for this summer's professional development workshop series, free to K-16. These full-day workshops, hosted in partnership with the University of Missouri-Kansas City Office of Financial Literacy and the Center for Economic Education at Emporia State University, include demonstrations of classroom resources, visits to local businesses and updates from subject matter experts on hot topics tied to economics and personal finance. A graduate credit option from Emporia State University, complimentary meals and onsite parking are available. There is no cost to teachers to attend, but advance registration is required at TeacherPD.kcfed.org.

June 11	Cultural Relevance: Connecting Your Mindset to the Students' Perspective	Grades K-12
	Discover how to cultivate healthy social-emotional learning in a diverse environment, including a walking tour of the historic 18 th and Vine District and its significance to Kansas City.
June 17	World War I 360: Inquiry-Based Strategies for the Classroom Explore inquiry-based learning through the lens of economics and history, including a free visit to the National World War I Museum and Memorial.	Grades 6-12
June 18	Advancing STEM Education in the Workforce – Part 1 Take an up-close look into the future of 21 st century careers and the skills needed to prepare for those career paths.	Grades K-12
June 20	Advancing STEM Education in the Workforce – Part 2 Experience the future of technology and how it will shape jobs and workforce development tomorrow.	Grades 6-12
June 28	Pedagogy for Building Economic and Financial Literacy Integrate best practices and winning strategies to engage students in fundamental economics and personal finance concepts.	Grades K-6
July 18	Solve the Financial Illiteracy Crisis Identify tools and tactics to bridge the knowledge gap between financial illiteracy and a financially healthy future.	Grades K-12

