The KITE RUNNER

Performed by Literature to Life

Where Great Literature Becomes Great Theatre!

10 a.m. Wednesday, October 11, 2017 | Yardley Hall Show length, 90 minutes | Suggested Ages: 14 and up

From the first novel about contemporary Afghanistan to be written in English, this performance dramatically portrays the relationship of two boys — Amir, a privileged Pashtun and Hassan, a Hazara servant. Amir takes us on a heartbreaking journey of friendship and betrayal in a society of severe class division. This Literature to Life award-winning adaptation mirrors the original short story written by the author. Using Afghani music as a backdrop, the performance features pre-show discussion, 50 minutes of verbatim performance from the first half of this best-selling contemporary novel, and 30 minutes post show audience dialogue.
